A NEW HIGH-CLASS NEWSPAPER FOR BOYS.

On SEPTEMBER 13 will be published NUMBER I. of

THE BOYS' NEWSPAPER.

WEEKLY, ONE PENNY.

PROSPECTUS.

EAGER as boys are for news, and keenly appreciative as they have shown themselves to be of well-digested intelligence on all the varied subjects that interest them, it has never yet been attempted to give them a Newspaper for themselves. It is perhaps beyond dispute that almost all that is going on in the world around has a very decided interest for boys, if only the account be conveyed to them in a form which commends itself to their taste and intelligence. Thus, for instance, the course of international events, the progress of legislation, the prosecution of great enterprises, the success of discoveries and inventions, the latest adventure, the most recent voyage of discovery, and such-like topics form a varied and absorbing record from week to week, not less attractive to boys than the things which more immediately concern them in the familiar worlds of School and Home, of Work and Play.

In the ordinary daily or weekly newspapers there is, however, so much that is of necessity uninteresting to and even unsuitable for boys, that this class of publication has, comparatively, but few attractions for them. But read they will and read they must, and in them, therefore, we have a vast audience ready and eager to listen to anything that from their point of view is worth listening to. It is to this large and highly appreciative audience that THE BOYS' NEWSPAPER will address itself.

THE BOYS' NEWSPAPER will be adapted for all boys—boys of all ages—inasmuch as the views and tastes of every section will be carefully considered, and their requirements suitably supplied. It will contain what they want to know and what they are accustomed most to interest themselves in; and, whilst it will be essentially a Newspaper, it will differ widely from any other existing vehicle of news. Not only will all the events which grow out of the work and play of active boy-life be duly reported, but there will be, in addition to some original and carefully selected stories, a series of practical papers and a condensed record of all that is transpiring in the outer and larger world for a place in which boys are seeking and striving to qualify themselves.

In addition to the more general news of the world's doings, such as has already been indicated as possessing great attraction for boys, THE BOYS' NEWSPAPER will provide a weekly register of all those events which come directly home to boys themselves in their immediate pursuits. Thus, it will contain news of every description from the Universities, Colleges, and Schools; particulars of Examinations, Scholarships, and Prizes; reports of Cricket and Football Matches, of Racquets and Tennis, of Athletic Sports, Bicycling, Rowing, and Swimming; and, in order to make this "intelligence department" as complete as possible, THE BOYS' NEWSPAPER proposes to have correspondents at all the special centres of interest for boys throughout the United Kingdom and the Colonies.

Week by week THE BOYS' NEWSPAPER will give practical articles by well-known experts on the various Sports and Pastimes of every season; on the keeping and management of Pets; on Carpentry, Mechanics, and other Indoor Occupations; on Natural History and other Collections; and on Home Amusements of every description.

The numberless traditions connected with School-life will form an attractive series of papers, written by "old boys;" while graphic descriptive accounts will from time to time be given of places full of interest to boys on account of the grand stories of the past connected with them.

Prize Schemes of a very comprehensive nature, and calculated to interest boys of all tastes, will form a characteristic feature of THE BOYS' NEWSPAPER, and an outline of these will be given in the first number.

"Answers to Correspondents" will be dealt with very fully, and the utmost trouble will be taken to give trustworthy replies to all proper enquiries, and to afford information on all subjects of interest.

Acrostics, Puzzles, Chess and Mathematical Problems—all these will find a place, together with numerous other subjects which it is not now possible to dwell upon.

Out of these various materials, then, abundant to overflowing as they are, it is determined to produce, week by week, a newspaper which, it is believed, the boys of this country will read alike with pleasure and with advantage. For THE BOYS' NEWSPAPER will be seen to be not merely a repertory of the world's news, not simply a weekly record of boys' doings, but also a journal abounding in all kinds of information, recreation, and amusement, and thoroughly representative of all that is best and noblest and most attractive in boys themselves—in short, a Journal which will be gladly welcomed in every house in the land where boys are to be found.

N.B.—A limited number of approved advertisements will be received for THE BOYS' NEWSPAPER, terms for the insertion of which may be had on application to the Manager of the Advertisement Department, La Belle Sauvage Yard, E.C.

W. H. SMITH & SON'S

SUBSCRIPTION LIBRARY,

186, STRAND, LONDON, and at the RAILWAY BOOKSTALLS.

1.—This Library is established in connexion with Messrs. W. H. SMITH & SON'S numerous Railway Bookstalls; it embraces all the most important Works of History, Biography, Travel, Fiction, Poetry, Science, and Theology, as well as the leading Magazines and Reviews.

2.—Subscribers can only change their Books at the Depot where their names are registered, but they may transfer the place of exchange by giving notice to the Clerk in charge of the Depot at which they obtain their books. There are 500 Bookstalls available for this purpose. Of the current periodicals, one only at a time is allowed to a Subscription under Five Guineas, and Subscriptions will not be accepted for the supply of Magazines and Reviews only.

3.—The Books are delivered at the Bookstalls, carriage free. A Subscriber may exchange once a day; the Clerk in charge will obtain from London any Work in the Library which a Subscriber may desire to have. NOVELS exchanged only in unbroken and complete Sets.

4.—London Subscribers transferring their Subscriptions to a Country Depot will be entitled only to the number of volumes which the Country terms assign to the amount they subscribe; similarly, Country Subscriptions transferred to Town become subject to the London regulations.

5.—Subscriptions may commence at any date, and are payable in advance at any of the Railway Bookstalls, or 186, Strand, London.

6.—Messrs. W. H. SMITH & SON beg to impress upon their Library Subscribers the fact that much disappointment and inconvenience would be avoided if they would, in all cases, give to the Clerk in charge a list comprising at least twice as many titles of works as they wish to exchange.

THE AUTOTYPE COMPANY has REMOVED from Rathbone-place to suitable Premises, 531, OXFORD STREET, W.C. (twenty doors west of Maudie's Library). The AUTOTYPE COMPANY are producers of Book Illustrations by the Autotype and Sawyer's Colotype Processes. Employed by the Trustees of the British Museum, Palaeographical, Numismatical, Royal Geographical, and other learned Societies. Facsimiles of Medals and Coins, Ancient MSS., Paintings, Drawings, Sketches, Views and Portraits from Nature, &c.

Note.—The special advantages of the Autotype Process for Book Illustrations are:—
1st. The absolutely facsimile nature of the result.
2nd. Its Cheapness for Small Editions of 250, 500, &c.
3rd. The Prints being direct on the Paper, there is an absence of all cockling and that disagreeable effect inherent to all Mounted Prints.

A TRAMP ABROAD. By MARK TWAIN.

"The fun and tenderness of the conception, of which no living man but Mark Twain is capable, its grace and fantasy, and slyness, the wonderful feeling for animals that is manifest in every line, make of all this episode of Jim Baker and his joys a piece of work that is not only delightful as mere reading, but also of a high degree of merit as literature. . . . The book is full of good things."—Athenaeum.

"A new book by Mark Twain has now become an event of some importance. . . . 'A Tramp Abroad' is certainly equal, if not in some respects superior, to anything that has flowed from the author's pen. . . . It would be almost impossible for anyone but a recluse or a fanatic to read through 'A Tramp Abroad' without finding something to laugh at in its abundant drolleries. . . . Our readers will do well to get the book for themselves."—Standard.

THE READER'S HANDBOOK of ALLUSIONS, REFERENCES, PLOTS, and STORIES. By the Rev. Dr. BREWER.

"Dr. Brewer has produced a wonderfully comprehensive dictionary of references to matters which are always cropping up in conversation and in every-day life, and writers generally will have reason to feel grateful to the author for a most handy volume, supplementing in a hundred ways their own knowledge or ignorance, as the case may be. . . . is something more than a mere dictionary of quotations, though a most useful companion to any work of that kind, being a dictionary of most of the allusions, references, plots, ories, and characters which occur in the classical poems, plays, novels, romances, &c., not only of our own country, but of most nations, ancient and modern."—Times.
